HIGH END® 2016 - LAST ORDER

Only a few days left to apply for the HIGH END 2016 show which will be held from May 5th to 8th 2016 at the MOC in Munich-Germany.

Shortly after the deadline, December 31st 2015, we will start to distribute and confirm to the exhibitors. It will be of course however possible to apply after the deadline, but any special wishes may not be possible as the planning is then ongoing and must be completed to the exhibitors first.

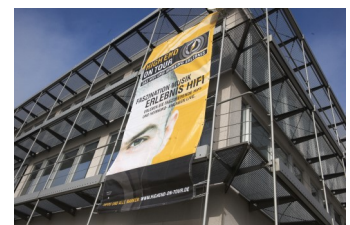

The fabulous MOC Convention Center hosts the main show for high quality home electronics since more than one decade, while the HIGH END® in total will be held for its 35th year in a row. All shows we have held during the years can be seen >>here:

As always, the first day will be open only for trade visitors, as far they have made their pre-registration at the HIGH END SOCIETY >>here: The trade day May 5th will be in Germany again a holiday (Ascension Day). Visitors to the show should be informed that we have made several agreements with hotels for your accommodation, near to the show. The complete listing can be found at our travel information web site in addition to the time schedule from our shuttle buses between HIGH END show and all hotels and between Munich airport and the MOC. We have also on offer the "spouse outing" arrangements in case you will travel with somebody who is not that interested into the show. See more >> here.
